

Senior Demand Planner, Stockholm

Do you have extensive experience in forecasting? Take on a key role and drive improvement within Lantmännen Cerealia! We develop, produce and market products in a responsible way – making a positive difference to the world of food. You will work with a strong portfolio of consumer brands such as Kungsörnen, AXA, FINN CRISP, Go Green, Gooh! and more.

This is what you will do

First of all, you will drive and develop the volume forecasting process, especially towards developing demand reviews within the S&OP process. You will also lead and facilitate monthly forecasting meetings and participate in budget and financial forecast processes. Being part of the Nordic Planning Team, you will focus on optimizing service levels to customers, as well as productivity and cost-effectiveness at our production facilities.

Working closely together with our sales organization, and our marketing and finance departments, means that you will broaden your network. You will also travel on a regular basis to our other offices and facilities in the Nordic region.

This is what you need to succeed:

You have:

- Extensive experience in forecasting in a complex environment
- A Bachelor's degree in a relevant field
- Knowledge of S&OP and relevant IT tools

You are:

- Curious to learn more about the industry and the underlying factors that drives demand and patterns
- Highly communicative and collaborative
- An independent doer who proactively drives improvement and development
- Fluent in English and Swedish, both written and spoken

What we offer you

Lantmännen Cerealia is part of Lantmännen Group – a global and growing business with operations from field to fork. What we develop as a group influences society and peoples' everyday lives – creating value for our farmers and future generations. We have strong focus on diversity and including and offer you a workplace with great development opportunities across countries, cultures and areas of expertise. Can you reimagine the world of grain?

Lantmännen is an agricultural cooperative and Northern Europe's leader in agriculture, machinery, bioenergy and food products. Owned by 25,000 Swedish farmers, we have 10,000 employees, operations in over 20 countries and an annual turnover of SEK 45 billion (approximately EUR 4.5 billion). With grain at the heart of our operations, we refine arable land resources to make farming thrive. Some of our best-known food brands are AXA, Bonjour, Kungsörnen, GoGreen, Gooh, FINN CRISP, Schulstad and Vaasan. Our company is founded on the knowledge and values acquired through generations of farmers. With research, development and operations throughout the value chain, together we take responsibility from field to fork.
